WINERY

SEDMERO ROSÉ
(VERMOUTH)

VINEYARD | WINE

Víno J Stávek has roots dating back to 1898. It was rebranded to the current winemaker's name in 2013. It is a founding member VOC Modré Hora and specializes in Rosé, Cuvée, Frankovka, and Fortified Wines. It was named Czech Winery of the Year in 2017. The winery is located in the sub-region Velke Pavlovice | Moravia.

The current winemaker is Jan Stávek, great grandson of the founder. He is a founding member of the "Mladí Vinaři" or Young Winemakers Association of the Czech Republic. Jan Stávek was named Czech Winemaker of the Year 2020.

The name of this top shelf vermouth translates to "Seven Rosé". The vermouth was created using mature rosé, wine must, noble wine distillate and seven organically grown herbs. It is a collaboration between Jan Stávek and two bartenders from the Czech Republic's Bar of the Year 2019, Brno-based "Bar Který Neexistuje", whose name literally translates to "the bar that does not exist".

TASTING NOTES | PAIRING SUGGESTIONS

- The colour of this top shelf vermouth is ruby
- On the palate you get cherry from the base rosé, but also raspberry leaves, coriander, citrus peel and spice.
- Despite the strong dominance of wormwood bitterness, the taste is balanced with sugar
- Amazing on its own with a twist of orange, in your favorite Negroni, or added to sparkling rosé to enjoy as an aperitif.
