VINEYARD | WINE

Krasna Hora (beautiful mountain) is a Certified Organic winery founded in the 1960's. The 7 hectares of vineyards are tended by hand adhering to biodynamic principles, meaning only herbals teas and natural composts are used for fertilizer and pest control in the vineyards. Yields are carefully controlled to 1.3 kg/vine to achieve the intensity and concentration of aromas and flavours they are looking for. All grapes are hand harvested. All wines are spontaneously fermented, low intervention, and vegan friendly. The winery is located in the sub region Slovacko | Moravia.

The current winemaker is Ondřej Dubas. He is member of the "Mladí Vinaři" or Young Winemakers Association of the Czech Republic.

This wine is unfiltered with a cloudy yellow golden colour.

TASTING NOTES | PAIRING SUGGESTIONS

- This is cuvée of Sauvignon Blanc, Pinot Blanc, Riesling, Neuberg, and Gewürztraminer
- On the nose there is floral and citrus aromas with a slight hint of herb.
- On the palate, the intense fruitiness is balanced by mouth-watering acidity with a richness coming from soft tannins
- Pairs beautifully with roast pork, salmon and spicy foods
- Serving Temperature: 9-10°C
